Profile

Nick Couldry is Professor of Media, Communications and Social Theory in the Department of Media and Communications at LSE. His main research interests are media and communications, culture and power, and social theory. He has been arguing how media and communications institutions and infrastructures contribute to various types of order. His analysis of media as ‘practice’ has been widely influential. His masterpiece, Media, Society, World: Social Theory and Digital Media Practice (Cambridge: Polity Press, 2012) is available in Japanese. (山腰修三監訳『メディア・社会・世界—デジタルメディアと社会理論』慶應義塾大学出版会、2018年)
